007's LALLA DEAN!

This delightful blonde who graces the big screen in 007 Roger Moore's latest multi-million pound epic For Your Eyes Only is an ex-Club International glamour model. Our resident centre-fold photographer, the notorious Fanny, has taken several full-frontal portfolios of the lovely Lalla . . . one of which we proudly present here as this month's CELEBRITY NUDE. ♣

Marnie feels that her best feature is her crowning glory. 'My guy thinks I have a magnificent head of hair – and likes nothing better than me to give head with it! He goes into ecstasies whenever I draw the hair over his cock, and trail it over his balls. When I eventually get his cock in my mouth, it only takes a few seconds for him to spurt, and he likes to bury his face in my hair when he's doing it.' A case of Hair today, come tomorrow? ♣

'There is a certain sexual satisfaction in knowing that many thousands of men now know the most intimate details of my body. It makes you wonder what it must be like to make love to all those men. I constantly search for new horizons when it comes to sex. At the moment I am formulating plans to fuck on top of a mountain in the Himalayas. The atmosphere is supposed to be rarified at a certain height which helps stimulate the senses apparently.

'I have already fucked underwater, which was a strange experience – quite difficult in fact – so now I suppose you could say I'm going to the other end of the spectrum.

'One can become quite staggered in fact, simply thinking about the circumstances and permutations which can be created simply for sexually stimulating scenarios. My mind literally does boggle, and it makes me more determined to live my sexual life to the full while I still have all my best faculties intact.' ♣
